

Neighborhood News.

Written by our assistant editors.

BLUE STAR.

Mrs. MYRTLE COINER.

W. S. Pennington's sister, Mrs. Dishman, and Mrs. Pennington's two sisters, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Pennington, all of Holden, Mo., arrived last Wednesday for a visit at the Pennington home.

Mr. James and C. M. Mikesell spent Sunday at Frank Baston's.

Mrs. Myrtle Coiner and son Loyd spent Saturday evening with her mother, Mrs. Ed Owen.

Mrs. Jay Bradford spent last Tuesday with Mrs. R. A. Norton.

Mr. Hart arrived last week from Hannibal, Mo., to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. R. A. Norton.

Bert and Jean Brown spent Saturday afternoon with Edna and Blanche Malone.

W. S. Pennington sold a team of mules to Tom Kunkler of Jasper Friday.

Mrs. Thompson and granddaughter Marie spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Heckman.

C. M. Mikesell spent Sunday evening at H. E. Coiner's.

Mrs. J. E. Hull and Jimmie Kaderly spent several days last week with Mrs. Kilby and Mrs. Onstott.

Miss Floy Brown spent Tuesday night with her brother Art and family.

Misses Helen Heckman and Floy Brown attended a teacher's meeting at Dorris Valley Thursday night.

Mrs. Lula Wells and children and Miss Norka Larabee spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Jake Kaderly.

Jake Kaderly was a Lamar visitor last Wednesday.

Miss Edith Cones of Carytown spent Saturday and Sunday night with the Misses Heckman.

Dr. Hendricks and Wes Malone and family called at Adam Malone's Tuesday evening.

John Heckman left last Monday for Illinois, where he will spend the winter.

Miss Floy Brown spent Sunday in Boston.

H. E. Coiner and family called at U. H. Brown's Sunday evening. Geo. Calhoun of Carthage also called there in the afternoon.

While hauling gravel Thursday, Adam Malone's horses became frightened and started to run, running a loaded wagon over his foot and mashing it considerably. The team was stopped, however, before any greater damage was done. Mr. Malone's foot is healing nicely and will soon be able to wear his shoe again.

The teacher and pupils are making great preparations for the school fair which will be held at Dorris Valley November 11.

Mr. Heckman and wife spent Wednesday afternoon with Jake Rish and wife.

Misses Helen and Elsie Heckman, Edith Cones, Raymond and Frank Heckman spent Saturday evening at Mr. Bowman's.

Chas. Wilson and wife, Allan Buerge and family, Misses Elsie and Helen Heckman, and Edith Cones were dinner guests of W. S. Pennington and family Sunday. Miss Cones spent Sunday night there.

Frank and Raymond Heckman spent Sunday afternoon with Fred Campbell.

U. H. Brown went down near Granby Thursday after a load of apples. He returned Sunday.

Messrs. Harlow and Long of Lamar called on H. E. Coiner Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hull visited relatives and friends in Carthage from Thursday until Sunday evening.

LEBANON.

MISS ZOAH ANDREWS.

Jack Stansberry and family and Misses Irene and Esther Phillips visited Sunday at Will Weston's west of Jasper.

Chas. Andrews spent Tuesday in Lamar.

Miss Ruth Griffiths called on Mrs. George Waltz Monday evening.

Mrs. Harry Norris called on Mrs. C. S. Andrews Sunday morning.

Chas. Woodrow and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Norris Crumm.

Mrs. John Hamilton and daughter Dena visited a few days in Carthage last week.

J. R. Carns and daughter, Mrs. Zoe High, spent Friday at C. S. Andrews'.

Geo. Haile and wife called at George Waltz's Wednesday afternoon.

Virgil Dinwiddie and wife, Mrs.

Alex Keith and wife and Miss Alberta Motley of Webb City visited Friday at Will Lyman's.

Arthur Armstrong and wife spent Sunday afternoon at Virgil Dinwiddie's.

Mrs. Chas. Andrews took seriously ill Saturday, but is some better now.

Mrs. Henry Goodrich has come back from Kansas City and is visiting at her brother-in-law's, John Shifflett.

Mr. and Mrs. Dinwiddie and Mrs. Chas. Woodrow spent Monday at Chas. Andrews'.

Harry Norris and wife called at John Shifflett's in Mount Carmel neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

Chas. Woodrow and wife took dinner Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. Tom Miller, in Jasper.

Mr. Dinwiddie and wife spent Wednesday at Will Lyman's.

Will Griffiths and wife spent Tuesday night at Matt Griffiths'.

Ray Bowman and Cleo Haile left last Tuesday for Iowa to shuck corn.

RISING SUN.

MISS NETTIE LOWE.

Mrs. Luther Wescott called on Mrs. George Sweezy one afternoon last week.

Mrs. George Sweezy's sister spent last week with her.

Miss Nettie Lowe spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. George Sweezy.

Mrs. Luther Wescott spent Wednesday with Mrs. Will Wood.

Grandpa Clary bought some wood from Dave Lowe last week.

Mrs. Will Patterson spent one day last week with Mrs. Abe Teeter.

Mrs. George Binney spent one day last week with Mrs. A. L. Lattimer.

Mrs. Ed Calvert, Pearl Taft and children, Mrs. George Hay and Mrs. Emery Teeter and children took dinner with Mrs. Abe Teeter one day last week.

Dave Lowe and family were in Carthage Friday.

John Lowe worked for Vernie Byers Friday helping him bale straw for Willis Carns.

Mrs. Luther Wescott and children visited her mother Friday.

Mrs. Abe Teeter, Grandma Hay and Mrs. George Hay visited Mrs. Clarence Hammond one day last week.

Will Wood, Luther Wescott and George Sweezy have been cutting wood for Mrs. Abe Teeter.

Mrs. Clarence Simmons called on Mrs. Will Wood last Wednesday.

Miss Nettie Lowe called on Mrs. Will Wood Thursday evening.

Mrs. Will Phipps spent one day last week with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Simmons.

Dick Patterson made a business trip to Carthage Thursday afternoon.

Flossie Patterson was a Carthage visitor Friday.

Luther Wescott, George Sweezy and Will Wood went to the cattle sale Friday at Henry Johns'.

Joe Smith was a Carthage visitor Friday.

Vernie Byers baled straw for Dave Lowe Monday.

Dave Lowe and family and Dick Patterson and wife and three children all motored to Pittsburg, Kans., Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Miss Beulah Patterson and Joe Edwards were married Wednesday morning. They went on their honeymoon trip to Dallas, Texas, to visit his brother and to attend a big fair at that place.

Mrs. Tom Patterson spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Carter.

Nina Patterson was unable to go to school Monday.

DUBLIN.

MRS. BERTHA WEBBER.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Mr. McQuillin and Mr. Corder Tuesday. The bereaved ones have our heart felt sympathy in their double loss.

Joe Taffner started to McDonald County Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Winder and children called at the Webber home Thursday.

Mrs. Rice left here for Illinois one day last week.

Grandma Armstrong helped Mrs. Grider quilt Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Grider happened to quite an accident Thursday afternoon as she was coming home from Jasper. The horse she was riding behind became frightened at a rock on the bridge across Coon Creek and began backing off the bridge throwing Mrs. Grider out of the buggy. Two ribs were broken and she was bruised up very badly.

Mrs. Grim and little grandson and Grandma Armstrong and Mrs. Vincent and daughter Snoda were visitors at the Grider home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Estell Taffner and children visited Grandma Armstrong and Bertha Webber Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Tunnell and wife went to Lawrence County the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Bessie Evans and son Ralph came up from Carthage Friday morning. They returned Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mossa Evans came from Neodesha, Kans., to take care of her mother, Mrs. Grider, during her illness.

Silas Griffiths is staying at the Grider home.

Mrs. Estell Taffner and little sons Leslie and Everett visited in Jasper with relatives Friday.

Mrs. Crow and daughter Grace and little granddaughter of Jasper called on Grandma Armstrong and Mrs. J. C. Webber Saturday.

Mrs. Earl Garner and little son Melvin A and Mrs. J. C. Webber were visitors at the Grider home Sunday afternoon.

Grandma Garner and Mrs. Annie Garner and son Raymond visited Earl Garner and family Saturday and returned to their home in Cartersville Sunday.

Charley Taffner and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Estell Taffner and children.

MALTA.

MISS EMMA MAGERS

Wm. McConnell and wife returned home Sunday morning after a two months' visit in Boise, Idaho.

John Murphy and wife visited Roy Massey and wife Thursday evening.

Roy Massey is sick with cold and is not able to work.

Mrs. Ben Bell is visiting her mother near Maple Grove.

Mrs. Lamiller, who lived near Golden City several years ago, who now lives in Boise, Idaho, is visiting relatives near Golden City Mo.

Miss Ruby Jarvis of the Malta neighborhood and Mr. Albert Nunn of the Mount Carmel neighborhood were married Thursday in Golden City, and their many friends wish them happiness.

Mayne and Iola Despain visited Mrs. John Murphy Thursday.

Jim Etter and family visited Mrs. Etter's uncle, Charley Riggs and family in Avilla Sunday.

The Crochet Club will meet with Mrs. John Welsh November 5.

Miss Kern dismissed school Thursday and Friday and attended the teachers meeting in Springfield.

DIAMOND.

MRS. CHARLES ELTING.

J. F. Gulick bought a fine flock of 615 sheep last week. They are Merinos and certainly nice one. Mr. Gulick has for a number of years been a breeder of fine Herefords with which he had great success. We wish him equal success in his new venture.

John Buzzard baled hay for F. Wood last week.

Carrie Serafine spent Tuesday with home folks.

Mrs. Gulick called on Mrs. Elting Monday.

Mrs. Lunt was called to Vernon County Tuesday on account of the illness of her mother. Word was received later of her death, which occurred Tuesday night. Our sympathy goes to Mrs. Lunt in her great sorrow.

A Osborn was a Carthage visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. John Buzzard called on Mrs. Elting last Wednesday.

Walter Howerly and wife were Jasper shoppers Wednesday.

The Republicans received a wet reception Tuesday night at Diamond it being such a stormy evening only a few attended the meeting.

Chas. Nett and John Buzzard hauled hay to Alba Wednesday.

The following farmers were marketing beef in the mining towns last week: John Lehman, John Buzzard, Chas. Nett, H. Rosebaugh and Chas. Stonehooker.

Mrs. Nett visited her parents in Jasper several days last week.

J. F. Gulick and family spent Sunday with Jay Bradford and family.

Theo. Mitchell and family spent Sunday with Walter Howerly and wife.

Mrs. Ingle, who has been quite poorly for several weeks, is thought to be some better.

Allie York came home last week from Lamar, where she has been for some time.

Mrs. Moser and Mrs. Osborn called on Mrs. Buzzard one day last week.

We understand we are now without a minister. A Mr. Spencer was sent to this charge, but it seems one Sunday was all he could stand.

Mr. Henley and family and Mr. Isen and wife moved over near Purcell last week.

The following called on Chas. Elting and wife Sunday: John Pfander and wife, Chas. Nett and family and Mrs. Osborn.

Mrs. Wesley Cline of Jasper spent several days visiting in our neighborhood last week.

Guy Serafine helped Mr. Williams move last week.

Report Cards
for Rural Schools at the News Office
1 cent each

Good Business

If you pay bills by giving a check on the Farmers & Merchants Bank, you will not only have a receipt for the money paid but the satisfaction of knowing that your check will be received for collection and credit at any Bank or Trust Company, Clearing House Association or Federal Reserve Bank in the United States.

Farmers & Merchants Bank of Jasper

FLOUR and FEED

The Jasper Elevator has a good stock of McDaniel's hard and soft wheat flour—none better.

All kinds of Feed, Coal and Fertilizer.

We will buy your hay and grain.

J. P. LEISS, Manager.

Furnish Your Home with Quality Furniture and Rugs at the very Lowest Prices

Our Stock is complete and prices right, as we bought most all our goods before the advance in prices.

Give us a call and inspect the goods

Special discount of 15 per cent on all American Quartered Oak Dressers and Chiffoniers

A $20 Princess Dresser for $17.00

A Quar. Sawed Oak Sideboard, was $30 this week only $23.75

D. W. Teeter

Furniture and Undertaking Jasper, Mo.